From the Announcements at the January 4, 2026 Worship Service

I would like to take a moment of personal privilege this morning to thank:

- Tom Richardson, Session Moderator Pro-Tem, Hope Devenney, Clerk of Session, and the Session for leading us through a challenging transition;
- Tori Pumphrey for her dedicated pursuit of pastors over the last year;
- All our wonderful visiting worship leaders for their insightful messages which helped us navigate 52 weeks of worship and doing God's work during the week;
- The choir and its leaders (Susan, Shirley, Andrew and Doug) for their music ministry;
- Tracie Hanson, our church administrator, for her work behind the scenes to keep us glued together;
- The church committees, Shepherding groups, Men of the Church, Presbyterian Women and all the other informal, ad hoc groups for keeping us focused on our Matthew 25 mission in the community;
- Lezli Waits and her team for keeping the PCDP a going and growing group of little people who are a delight to see and hear during the week;
- And, all those helped with other parts of the Sunday services: ushers, acolytes, bell-ringers, liturgists, those delivering the children's messages, those taking care of the children, and those working the video/streaming.
- So, . . . Thanks, and thanks, and ever thanks to all of you who were so gracious with your time and your talents in seeing that these essential tasks were completed during 2025. I hope we can count on you again this year and expand the "roster of the willing" in 2026.
